

2018 CONVENTION

Communication - The Human Connection

WEDNESDAY 25TH
JULY 2018

2018 EMR Alliance Convention - Presenters

Julie Kitto

Julie Kitto is a proud Wurundjeri woman who works tirelessly advocating for Aboriginal women's rights.

Through her work in Aboriginal family violence, Julie continues to empower Aboriginal women through a range of supports and cultural connections.

Julie is well known across the region for her work in collaborative facilitation of key Aboriginal events and forums.

She carries the strength of her family, Country and her culture with her, giving her the strength and capacity for leadership through community health and well-being.

Simon Banks

Simon is a sought-after speaker, conference MC, director of creative training company VisualFunk and author of A Thousand Little Light Bulbs.

Kerryn Powell

Kerryn is the founder of Your Time Matters, a dynamic speaker and educator, who thrives on uncovering opportunities for others to collaborate and connect.

RAS & ACAS Panel:

- ❖ Pansy Lee, Coordinator of Eastern Regional Assessment Services
- ❖ Sally Pearson, Manager ACAS and Community TCP, St Vincent's Melbourne
- ❖ Sue McGrath, Team Leader, Central East ACAS, Ambulatory Services, Eastern Health

Alliance Review Presentation:

- ❖ Ayesha Fathers, Eastern Regional Development Coordinator
- ❖ Vanessa Jones, Manager - Health & Wellbeing, Link Health and Community
- ❖ Sharryn Davey-Sharman - Coordinator Home Support Services, Whitehorse Home and Community Services